

Eine Tischgesellschaft

(A dinner party)

Four evenings a year, at the change of each season, artists Laura Klatt and Judith Strößenreuter invite you to the table. Up to twelve people come together on this evening. Sometimes 1, 2, 3 or less - but never more. The invitation is for everyone who feels like having an evening with people he did not know until then - and good food. What they have in common: everyone comes alone. There are no conditions, only encounters. You have agreed to a date, but only with people you do not know - yet. A group of strangers turns into a party of companions during the evening - a dinner party.

The place where the evening takes place is a secret that will be revealed at the last minute. It will not be a restaurant, so much can be revealed. Nevertheless, it will be festively served with seasonal cuisine, drinks, tablecloth and candle holders.

Come on over, don't bring friends with, but get to know new ones and let's get together to spend a grand evening.

Please let us know if you have allergies so we can take this into account.
